TURKEY DAY HOTLINE

Skill Level ●●●○

A Logrid original puzzle

Thanksgiving is the busiest day of the year for the Home Cooking Hotline. From frozen turkeys to burnt pie crusts, these operators have heard it all. Can you figure out what time each operator got their craziest call, which dish was involved, and what the caller's complaint was?

- Of the call about stuffing and the one about a chalky taste, one came in at 10:30 A.M. and the other was answered by Prudence.
- Tabitha didn't take the call about the slimy side dish, or the one that was overflowing.
- The call Mitch received, the one that came in at 10:00 A.M., the call about the pumpkin pie, and the one about a dish with a suspicious chalky taste were four different calls.
- The call about the green bean casserole and the dish that turned a muddy grey color were 90 minutes apart.
- The call that came in at 9:30 A.M., the one about a dish that turned rubbery, and the call about mac & cheese were three separate calls. Phineas did not answer any of them.
- The muddy grey dish was either the stuffing or the dish Mitch helped troubleshoot.
- Of the earliest call and the latest, one was handled by Prudence and the other was about a bad batch of mac & cheese.
- Between the call Tabitha answered and the one about an overflowing dish, one involved stuffing and the other came in at 10:00 A.M.
